

CENTRAL

Position : Finance Business Partner

Location : Central Chidlom

Responsibilities:

- Works as a partner with and challenge the business owner by asking the right questions
- Structure and identify the key business problems that data and analytics can help solve
- Provides insight to the business partner in terms of what “state of the art” looks like in data and analytics in their area; helps define the “art of the possible”
- Jointly owns the KPIs and performance metrics with the business owners
- Understands strategic needs of the business, and is able to translate need into potential new use cases
- Builds deep understanding of the product/functional area (e.g., Operations, Marketing) that the business partner is aligned with

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in a quantitative field (business, math, economics, finance, statistics, science, engineering)
- Master's Degree in business, economics, finance is a plus
- 7+ years in the business area that business partner is aligned with
- Excellent interpersonal skills, strong verbal and written communications skills capable of developing well-structured communications and presentations, storytelling ability
- Team oriented, goals oriented, and flexible with proven track record in collaborating with multiple stakeholders and driving results, specially via influence management

Contact

Khun Sunadda

HuSunadda@central.co.th

065-719 4970